

Answer Sheet (C)

Spot the dangers

- Kayaking – The person has no lifejacket and is on their own.
- Pushing – The person being pushed may not know how to swim; the depth of the water is unknown; there may be unseen hazards under the water and they could hit their head/injure themselves.
- Swimming – Away from the shore- unseen rip currents/hazards/reefs.
- Boating – The woman is not in the boat safely. She is at risk of falling out. She is also not wearing a lifejacket.
- Diving – The person diving into shallow water (note the marking on the side of the pool). So there is a risk of impact with bottom of the pool
- Water butt – The person who is on their own could fall in head first and there would be no way to climb out, so there is high risk of drowning.
